READY, SET, ACT!

Tuesdays, March 14-May 9 (no class March 28)
Church of the Ascension 6-7:00pm
Shadyside

Thursdays, March 16-May 11 (no class April 13)
Christ Church at Grove Farm 6-7:00pm
Sewickley

Theater builds confidence, encourages imagination, and requires working as an ensemble, and those are all skills that it's never too early to start developing! Our youngest students will work on these foundations of theater in this fun and imagination focused class that incorporates stories, games, songs, and plays based on children's literature.

Ages 7-11 Cost: $130

IT'S ALL ABOUT IMPROV

Tuesdays, March 14-May 9 (no class March 28)
Church of the Ascension 6-7:30pm
Shadyside

Thursdays, March 16-May 11 (no class April 13)
Christ Church at Grove Farm 6-7:30pm
Sewickley

Not only is improvisation a whole lot of fun and a very important skill for all actors, but it's also an incredibly useful skill for all students, public speakers, and problem solvers! Students will learn the importance of saying yes, working together, and going with the flow as they create characters, dialogue, and scenes on the spot.

Ages 12-18 Cost: $130

CREATING A CHARACTER

Tuesdays, March 14-May 9 (no class March 28)
Church of the Ascension 6-7:30pm
Shadyside

Thursdays, March 16-May 11 (no class April 13)
Christ Church at Grove Farm 6-7:30pm
Sewickley

Character actors specialize in playing odd or eccentric characters. They give stand out performances because of their ability to completely transform themselves into another person on stage. Students will hone their acting skills as they create fully fleshed out characters with big personalities, striking physicalities, and distinctive voices.

Ages 12-21

ACTING AS A SOCIAL SKILL

Cost: $130

In partnership with Actors for Autism

Tuesdays, March 14-May 9 (no class March 28)
Church of the Ascension 6:30-7:30pm
Shadyside

An acting and improvisation class focused on the real life application of theater skills in social settings. Scene work will prepare students for both acting on stage and in everyday situations with family, friends, and strangers by providing opportunities to experience the many different social roles we all play but sometimes take for granted.

Curriculum developed by Dr. Alisa Wolf (Executive Director and Founder of Actors for Autism) for students on the spectrum.
